

Goals/Outcomes

- to serve as a bridge between the students' native language and English language instruction.
- to serve as a bridge between the students' native culture and the American mainstream culture.
- to serve as a bridge to awareness, appreciation, and acceptance of the rich diversity of our school community.

Listening/Speaking

The student will:

- listen attentively to the teacher and other students
- listen and comment appropriately
- follow oral directions
- express ideas clearly
- ask for help when needed
- retell a story or other new information
- participate in small group discussions

Reading/Writing

The student will:

- read fluently with expression
- understand material read
- use a variety of reading strategies
- make predictions about stories/text
- use correct tracking and use one-to-one correspondence
- respond to literature in a journal
- identify the alphabet letters and their sounds
- build a sight vocabulary
- identify and create rhyming words
- begin to write in sentences, with appropriate capitalization